LONG TERM CARE

Visit the New NHFA Web Site Providing Comprehensive Free Advice and Information on Obtaining and Paying for Care

As older people become the fastest growing sector of internet users the NHFA has re-launched its already popular web site www.nhfa.co.uk This is the only independent site in the UK exclusively providing free advice to older people and their families on obtaining and paying for care.

The site explains all about the NHFA and includes pages on State assistance which answers all the commonly questions asked, choosing a home with links to UK care home directories, financial advice showing how care costs can be met and capital preserved, legal matters which are essential to address, up to date news and views, Press Office, Care Professionals area and several useful downloads.

For both Individuals and organisations up to date information can be obtained or personal problems solved through direct e-mail link from the website to NHFA head office.

NHFA advice and information is free and available to all regardless of means and encompasses local authority charging and assessment procedures, health authorities' responsibilities, DWP benefits, guidance on legal matters and financial advice. The aim of the NHFA is to enable older people meet the cost of their chosen care for life whilst also preserving their original capital, independence and dignity.
